

„I am energy.
You too?“

Bastian F., with Trianel since 2017

YOU WILL SUPPORT OUR OFFSHORE PROJECT MANAGEMENT TEAM IN HAMBURG:

Student employee - Project Support (m/f/d)

Responsibilities:

- Support in the preparation of schedules, budgets and resource plans, in the creation and maintenance of project and meeting documentation, in the organization and coordination of meetings and workshops as well as support in data analysis and the preparation of information for decision-making
- Assistance in the planning, implementation and documentation of projects, collaboration in the development and maintenance of dashboards and reports (PowerBI), assistance in the administration and maintenance of technical systems and tools

Qualifications:

- Student of business administration, computer science or engineering
- Basic understanding of project management methods and tools, excellent MS Office skills and great English skills
- Analytical and problem-solving skills, ability to work effectively in a dynamic environment, team player and strong communicator

What We Offer:

- Open corporate culture with regular events
- Outstanding development prospects in a future-oriented business area
- Company health management

Are you Engery?

Join us in shaping the fast-growing and dynamic environment of the energy industry and apply online via our application portal: www.trianel.com/karriere.

For preliminary information, please contact Marcus Delin (Tel.: +49 (40) 4600 179 - 210).

We look forward to your energy!

Trianel GmbH | Human Resources | Krefelder Straße 203, D-52070 Aachen

